Publishers' Note

THIS book has been prepared solely to meet the needs of the Sunday-school, but when the music of the Sunday-school and that of other religious services will coincide, it may be used elsewhere. The book is based upon the recognition of worship as a vital element in religious education, of music as a means of self-expression which is a fundamental principle in education, and upon the conviction that only that which is worthy to endure in music and hymnology is fitted to be the medium of expression of the faith, the love, the purpose and the experiences of the unfolding life of childhood and youth. Special care has been taken in the selection and arrangement of the hymns. Except in the case of a few standard hymns which are universally sung and into the thought of which many grow early in life, hymns or stanzas which express only the adult experience have been omitted, as also have hymns which refer to occasions outside the sphere of Sunday-school services. Based upon the vision and the experiences of youth, the book will be found rich in hymns of praise, hymns of the spiritual awakening and the developing life, hymns of service for others, and hymns of the heroic life in its twofold aspect of resistance and struggle for righteousness.

A new feature of this book, and one which will commend it to many Sunday-schools, is the section devoted to Selections for the Sunday-School Choir.

The element of worship has been recognized, and to this end a section has been added containing music and scripture arranged for liturgical use, a general order for Sunday-school worship, and several services topically arranged for special occasions.

The thanks of the publishers are due to the following persons who have assisted in the preparation of this book: the Rev. Milton S. Littlefield, Frank E. A. Stoney, M. D., H. Augustine Smith, the Rev. Frank S. Hunnewell and Alexander S. Gibson.

The dawn of God's dear Sabbath

A. C. CROSS, 1866

"ST. GEORGE'S, BOLTON"

J. WALCH, 1875

1. The dawn of God's dear Sab - bath Breaks o'er the earth a - gain,
2. Lord, we would bring for of - f'ring, Though marr'd with earth-ly soil,
3. And we would bring our bur - den Of sin - ful thought and deed,
4. And with that sor - row min - gling, A stead- fast faith, and sure,

As some sweet sum - mer morn - ing Af - ter a night of pain;
 A week of earn - est la - bor, Of stead - y, faith - ful toil;
 In Thy pure pres - ence kneel - ing, From bond - age to be freed;
 And love so deep and fer - vent, That tries to make it pure;

It comes as cool - ing show - ers To some ex-hau - sted land,
 Fair fruits of self - de - ni - al, Of strong, deep love to Thee,
 Our heart's most bit - ter sor - row For all Thy work un - done
 In His dear pres - ence find - ing The par - don that we need,

As shade of clus - ter'd palm-trees 'Mid wea - ry wastes of sand.
 Fos - ter'd by Thine own Spir - it, In our hu - mil - i - ty.
 So ma - ny tal - ents wast - ed, So few bright lau -rels won.
 And then the peace so last - ing—Ce - les - tial peace in - deed. A-men.

THE LORD'S DAY

5 So be it, Lord, for ever.
 Oh, may we evermore,
 In Jesus' holy presence
 His blessed name adore.
 Upon His peaceful Sabbath,
 Within His temple-walls—
 Type of the stainless worship
 In Zion's golden halls.

6 So that, in joy and gladness,
 We reach that home at last,
 When life's short week of sorrow
 And sin and strife is past;
 When angel-hands have gathered
 The fair, ripe fruit for Thee,
 O Father, Lord, Redeemer,
 Most Holy Trinity.

When morning gilds the skies

"LAUDES DOMINI"

German, 1828. Tr. E. CASWALL, 1854

J. BARNBY, 1868

May Je - sus Christ be praised. A - like at work and pray'r,
 May Je - sus Christ be praised. When e - vil thoughts mo - lest,
 May Je - sus Christ be praised. Or fades my earth - ly bliss,
 May Je - sus Christ be praised. The pow'r's of dark - ness fear,

To Je - sus I re - pair; . May Je - sus Christ be praised.
 With this I shield my breast, May Je - sus Christ be praised.
 My com-fort still is this, May Je - sus Christ be praised.
 When this sweet chant they hear, May Je - sus Christ be praised. A-men.

5 In heaven's eternal bliss
 The loveliest strain is this,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.
 Let earth, and sea, and sky
 From depth to height reply,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

6 Be this, while life is mine,
 My canticle divine,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.
 Be this the eternal song
 Through ages all along,
 May Jesus Christ be praised.

Every morning mercies new

E. J. HOPKINS, 1872

Ev - 'ry morn - ing let us pay Trib - ute with the ear - ly day;

For Thy mer-cies, Lord, are sure, Thy com-pas-sion doth en-dure.
Gives un-bought, to those who pray, Strength to stand in e-vil day. A-men.

3 Let our prayers each morn prevail,
That these gifts may never fail;
And, as we confess the sin
And the tempter's power within,
Feed us with the Bread of Life,
Fit us for our daily strife.

4 As the morning light returns,
As the sun with splendor burns,
Teach us still to turn to Thee,
Ever blessedèd Trinity,
With our hands our hearts to raise,
In unfailing prayer and praise.

4 Yes, God is good, all nature says, 5 For all Thy gifts we bless Thee, Lord ;
 By God's own hand with speech endued ; But chiefly for our heavenly food ;
 And man, in louder notes of praise, Thy pard'ning grace, Thy quick'ning word,— Should sing for joy that God is good. These prompt our song that God is good.

HIS BIRTH AND CHILDHOOD

3 How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given;
So God imparts to human hearts
The blessings of His heaven.
No ear may hear His coming,
But in this world of sin,
Where meek souls will receive Him still,
The dear Christ enters in.

4 O holy Child of Bethlehem,
Descend to us, we pray,
Cast out our sin, and enter in,
Be born in us to-day.
We hear the Christmas angels
The great glad tidings tell;
O come to us, abide with us,
Our Lord Emmanuel.

"IRBY"

H. J. GAUNTLETT. (1805-1876)

1. Once in roy - al Da - vid's cit - y Stood a low - ly cat - tle shed,
 2. He came down to earth from heav-en, Who is God and Lord of all,
 3. For He is our child-hood's pat - tern, Day by day like us He grew;

Where a moth - er laid her Ba - by In a man - ger for His bed.
 And His shel - ter was a sta - ble, And His cra - dle was a stall.
 He was lit - tle, weak, and help - less, Tears and smiles like us He knew.

Ma - ry was that moth-er mild, Je - sus Christ her lit - tle Child.
 With the poor, and mean and low - ly, Lived on earth our Sav-iour holy.
 And He feel-eth for our sad - ness, And He shar-eth in our glad - ness. A-men.

4 And our eyes at last shall see Him,
 Through His own redeeming love,
 For that Child so dear and gentle
   Is our Lord in heaven above,
 And He leads His children on
   To the place where He is gone.

5 Not in that poor lowly stable,
   With the oxen standing by,
 We shall see Him, but in heaven,
   Set at God's right hand on high,
 When like stars His children crowned,
   All in white shall wait around.

As with gladness men of old

1. As with glad-ness men of old Did the guid - ing star be - hold,
 2. As with joy - ful steps they sped To that low - ly man - ger - bed,
 3. As they of - fered gifts most rare At that man - ger rude and bare,

 There to bend the knee be - fore Him whom heav'n and earth a - dore,

4 Holy Jesus, every day
 Keep us in the narrow way;
 And, when earthly things are past,
 Bring our ransomed souls at last
 Where they need no star to guide,
 Where no clouds Thy glory hide.

5 In the heavenly country bright,
 Need they no created light;
 Thou its light, its joy, its crown,
 Thou its Sun which goes not down;
 There for ever may we sing
 Alleluias to our King.

I've found a Friend

J. G. SMALL, 1886

"CONSTANCE"

A. S. SULLIVAN, (1842-1900)

1. I've found a Friend; Oh, such a Friend! He loved me ere I knew Him;
 2. I've found a Friend; Oh, such a Friend! He bled, He died to save me;
 3. I've found a Friend; Oh, such a Friend! So kind, and true, and ten-der,

He drew me with the cords of love, And thus He bound me to Him:
 And not a - lone the gift of life, But His own self He gave me.
 So wise a coun - sel - lor and Guide, So might - y a De - fend - er.

And round my heart still close - ly twine Those ties which nought can sev - er,
 Nought that I have my own I call, I hold it for the Giv - er:
 From Him, Who loves me now so well, What pow'r my soul can sev - er?

For I am His, and He is mine, For - ev - er and for - ev - er.
 My heart, my strength, my life, my all, Are His, and His for - ev - er.
 Shall life?—or death?—or earth?—or hell? No; I am His for - ev - er. A-men.

 'Twas He that washed me in His blood,'Twas He that made me whole;

I was a way-ward child, I did not love my home;
 They found me nigh to death, Fam - ished and faint, and lone;
 'Twas He that sought the lost, That found the wan-d'ring sheep,

I did not love my Fa-ther's voice; I loved a - far to roam.

1. I lay my sins on Je - sus, The spot - less Lamb of God;
2. I lay my wants on Je - sus; All ful - ness dwells in Him;
3. I long to be like Je - sus, Meek, lov - ing, low - ly, mild;

He bears them all, and frees us From the ac - curs - ed load:
He heals all my dis - ea - ses, He doth my soul re - deem:
I long to be like Je - sus, The Fa - ther's ho - ly Child:

I bring my guilt to Je - sus, To wash my crim - son stains
I lay my griefs on Je - sus, My bur - dens and my cares;
I long to be with Je - sus A - mid the heav'n-ly throng,

White in His blood most pre - cious, Till not a stain re - mains.

 By ten thousand voices greeted,
 Lord of lords, and King of kings.
 Son of Man, they crown, they crown Him,
 Son of God, they own, they own Him;
 With His name the palace rings..

 Heavenly riches, earthly treasure,
 Lay we at His blessed feet ;
 Poor the praise that now we render,
 Loud shall be our voices yonder,
 When before His throne we meet.

The Ten Commandments

GOD spake all these words, saying, I am the Lord thy God, which have brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

I.—Thou shalt have no other gods before Me.

II.—Thou shalt not make unto thee any graven image, or any likeness of any thing that is in heaven above, or that is in the earth beneath, or that is in the water under the earth: thou shalt not bow down thyself to them, nor serve them: for I the Lord thy God am a jealous God, visiting the iniquity of the fathers upon the children unto the third and fourth generation of them that hate Me; and showing mercy unto thousands of them that love Me, and keep My commandments.

III.—Thou shalt not take the Name of the Lord thy God in vain; for the Lord will not hold him guiltless that taketh His Name in vain.

IV.—Remember the Sabbath-day, to keep it holy. Six days shalt thou labor, and do all thy work: but the seventh day is the Sabbath of the Lord thy God; in it thou shalt not do any work, thou, nor thy son, nor thy daughter, thy man-servant, nor thy maid-servant, nor thy cattle, nor thy stranger that is within thy gates; for in six days the Lord made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, and rested the seventh day: wherefore the Lord blessed the Sabbath-day, and hallowed it.

V.—Honor thy father and thy mother: that thy days may be long upon the land which the Lord thy God giveth thee.

VI.—Thou shalt not kill.

VII.—Thou shalt not commit adultery.

VIII.—Thou shalt not steal.

IX.—Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbor.

X.—Thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's house, thou shalt not covet thy neighbor's wife, nor his man-servant, nor his maid-servant, nor his ox, nor his ass, nor any thing that is thy neighbor's.

Hear also what our Lord Jesus Christ saith. Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.

The Apostles' Creed

I BELIEVE in God the Father Almighty, Maker of heaven and earth:

And in Jesus Christ His only Son our Lord; who was conceived by the Holy Ghost; born of the Virgin Mary; suffered under Pontius Pilate; was crucified, dead, and buried; He descended into hell; the third day He rose again from the dead; He ascended into heaven; and sitteth on the right hand of God the Father Almighty; from thence He shall come to judge the quick and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Ghost; the Holy Catholic Church; the Communion of Saints; the Forgiveness of sins; the Resurrection of the body; and the Life everlasting. Amen.

The Beatitudes

Leader—Blessed are the poor in spirit:

School—For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are they that mourn:

For they shall be comforted.

Blessed are the meek:

For they shall inherit the earth.

Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness:

For they shall be filled.

Blessed are the merciful:

For they shall obtain mercy.

Blessed are the pure in heart:

For they shall see God.

Blessed are the peacemakers:

For they shall be called the children of God.

Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake:

For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

Rejoice, and be exceeding glad; for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

The Shepherd Psalm

Leader—The Lord is my shepherd:

School—I shall not want.

He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:

He leadeth me beside the still waters.

He restoreth my soul:

He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.

Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:

For Thou art with me; Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.

Thou preparest a table before me in the presence of mine enemies:

Thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.

Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me all the days of my life:

And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

A General Confession

ALMIGHTY and most merciful Father; We have erred, and strayed from thy ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against thy holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; And we have done those things which we ought not to have done; And there is no health in us. But thou, O Lord, have mercy upon us, miserable offenders. Spare thou those, O God, who confess their faults. Restore thou those who are penitent; According to thy promises declared unto mankind in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O most merciful Father, for his sake; That we may hereafter live a godly, righteous, and sober life, To the glory of thy holy Name. Amen.

A Prayer of St. Chrysostom

ALMIGHTY God, who hast given us grace at this time with one accord to make our common supplications unto thee; and dost promise that when two or three are gathered together in thy Name thou wilt grant their requests; Fulfil now, O Lord, the desires and petitions of thy servants, as may be most expedient for them; granting us in this world knowledge of thy truth, and in the world to come life everlasting. Amen.

O GOD, who hast prepared for those who love thee such good things as pass man's understanding; Pour into our hearts such love toward thee, that we, loving thee above all things, may obtain thy promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

---

O GOD, the strength of all those who put their trust in thee; Mercifully accept our prayers: and because through the weakness of our mortal nature, we can do no good thing without thee, grant us the help of thy grace, that in keeping thy commandments we may please thee, both in will and deed; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

---

O GOD, who knowest us to be set in the midst of so many and great dangers, that by reason of the frailty of our nature we cannot always stand upright; Grant to us such strength and protection, as may support us in all dangers, and carry us through all temptations; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

A General Thanksgiving

ALMIGHTY God, Father of all mercies, we, thine unworthy servants, do give thee most humble and hearty thanks for all thy goodness and loving-kindness to us, and to all men. We bless thee for our creation, preservation, and all the blessings of this life; but above all, for thine inestimable love in the redemption of the world by our Lord Jesus Christ; for the means of grace, and for the hope of glory. And, we beseech thee, give us that due sense of all thy mercies, that our hearts may be unfeignedly thankful, and that we show forth thy praise, not only with our lips, but in our lives; by giving up ourselves to thy service, and by walking before thee in holiness and righteousness all our days; through Jesus Christ our Lord, to whom, with thee and the Holy Ghost, be all honor and glory, world without end. Amen.

A Collect for Peace

O GOD, from whom all holy desires, all good counsels, and all just works do proceed; Give unto thy servants that peace which the world cannot give; that our hearts may be set to obey thy commandments, and also that by thee, we, being defended from the fear of our enemies, may pass our time in rest and quietness; through the merits of Jesus Christ our Saviour. Amen.

A Collect for Grace

O LORD, our heavenly Father, Almighty and everlasting God, who hast safely brought us to the beginning of this day; Defend us in the same with thy mighty power; and grant that this day we fall into no sin, neither run into any kind of danger; but that all our doings, being ordered by thy governance, may be righteous in thy sight; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

ALMIGHTY God, unto whom all hearts are open, all desires known, and from whom no secrets are hid; Cleanse the thoughts of our hearts by the inspiration of thy Holy Spirit, that we may perfectly love thee, and worthily magnify thy holy Name; through Christ our Lord. Amen.

GRANT to us, Lord, we beseech thee, the spirit to think and do always such things as are right; that we, who cannot do any thing that is good without thee, may by thee be enabled to live according to thy will; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Behold, the Lord God will come with strong hand, and his arm shall rule for him. Behold, his reward is with him, and his work before him.

Leader — As a shepherd seeketh out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered; so will I seek out my sheep, and will deliver them out of all the places where they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.

School — He shall feed his flock like a shepherd; he shall gather the lambs with his arms, and carry them in his bosom.

All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned every one to his own way; and the Lord hath laid on him the iniquity of us all.

I am the good shepherd; the good shepherd giveth his life for the sheep.

Other sheep I have which are not of this fold; them also must I bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold and one shepherd.

When he putteth forth his own sheep, he goeth before them, and the sheep follow him, for they know his voice.

To him be glory and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his abundant mercy hath begotten us again unto a living hope by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead.

To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven for you, who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us.

Unto him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

Leader — That we may bear our testimony and serve in praising, let us lift our hearts in praise to God.

School — Whoso offereth praise glorifieth me:

O magnify the Lord with me, and let us exalt his name together.

Saying, I will declare thy name unto my brethren, in the midst of the church will I sing praise unto thee.

And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to the which also ye are called in one body; and be ye thankful.

Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.

I will praise thee, O Lord, among the people: I will sing unto thee among the nations.

God's Care*Prelude*Opening Sentences*Invocation*The Lord's Prayer*Reading

Confession of Trust in the Heavenly Father

School — I will lift up mine eyes unto the hills:

From whence cometh my help?

My help cometh from the Lord,
Who made heaven and earth.

He will not suffer thy foot to be moved:
He that keepeth thee will not slumber.
Behold, he that keepeth Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.

The Lord is thy keeper:

The Lord is thy shade upon thy right hand.

The sun shall not smite thee by day,
Nor the moon by night.

The Lord will keep thee from all evil;
He will keep thy soul.

The Lord will keep thy going out and thy coming in

From this time forth and forevermore.

An Example of God's Care

Leader — And Jacob went out from Beersheba, and went toward Haran.

School — And he lighted upon a certain place, and tarried there all night because the sun was set; and he took one of the stones of the place and put it under his head, and lay down in that place to sleep.

In peace will I both lay me down and sleep; for thou, Lord, alone makest me to dwell in safety.

Blessed are all they that put their trust in him.

Hymn No. 141. Nearer, my God, to Thee

Though like a wanderer,
The sun gone down,
Darkness be over me,
My rest a stone;
Yet in my dreams I'd be
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.

Responsive Reading

Leader — And he dreamed and behold a ladder set up on the earth, and the top of it reached to heaven; and behold, the angels of God ascending and descending on it.

School — And behold, the Lord stood above it and said, I am the Lord God of Abraham, thy father, and the God of Isaac. Behold, I am with thee, and will keep thee in all places whither thou goest.

Singing

There let the way appear
Steps unto heaven;
All that thou sendest me,
In mercy given;
Angels to beckon me
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer, my God, to thee,
Nearer to thee.

Responsive Reading*God's Care for All

Leader — Behold the fowls of the air: for they sow not, neither do they reap, nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly Father feedeth them. Are ye not much better than they?

School — Which of you by taking thought can add one cubit unto his stature?

And why take ye thought for raiment? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow; they toil not, neither do they spin:

And yet I say unto you, That even Solomon in all his glory was not arrayed like one of these.

Wherefore, if God so clothe the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is cast into the oven, shall he not much more clothe you, O ye of little faith?

Therefore take no thought, saying, What shall we eat? or, What shall we drink? or, Wherewithal shall we be clothed?

(For after all these things do the Gentiles seek:) for your heavenly Father knoweth that ye have need of all these things.

But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

In the day-time also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.

He clave the rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.

He rained down manna upon them to eat, and gave them food from heaven. He rained flesh upon them as the dust, and winged birds as the sand of the sea.

How oft did they rebel against him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert.

But he led them safely so that they were not afraid; he brought them unto his holy border, to this mountain land, which his right hand had gotten.

For this God is our God for ever and ever: he will be our guide even unto death.

And through the dark, its echoes sweetly ringing,

The music of the gospel leads us home. CHORUS:

Leader — Search me, O God, and know my heart: try me, and know my thoughts:

School — And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Far, far away, like bells at evening pealing,

The voice of Jesus sounds o'er land and sea.

And laden souls by thousands weekly stealing,
Kind Shepherd, turn their weary steps to thee. CHORUS:

Leader — Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, thou that leadest Joseph like a flock.

School — Thou shalt guide me with thy counsel, and afterward receive me to glory.

Sing us sweet fragments of the songs above;

Till morning's joy shall end the night of weeping,

And life's long shadows break in cloudless love. CHORUS:

Blessed is the man that endureth temptation; for when he hath been approved, he shall receive the crown of life which the Lord promised to them that love him.

the Lord when he cometh shall find watching. And if he shall come in the second watch, or come in the third watch, and find them so, blessed are those servants.

Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of Man cometh at an hour when

Leader — Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might. Put on the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.

School — For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Wherefore take unto you the whole armour of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.

Stand therefore, having your loins girt about with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness: and your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;

Above all, taking the shield of faith, wherewith ye shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.

And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God.

Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints.

The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid? Though an host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; though war rise against me, even then will I be confident.

Be strong and of good courage, fear not nor be affrighted; for the Lord thy God, he it is that doth go with thee; he will not fail thee, nor forsake thee.

Hymn No. 181. The Son of God goes forth to war

The son of God goes forth to war,
A kingly crown to gain;
His blood-red banner streams afar:
Who follows in his train?

Triumphant over pain,
Who patient bears his cross below,
He follows in his train.

Leader — What is the reward of the soldier?

School — I have fought the good fight, I have finished the course, I have kept the faith; henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give to me at that day.

Singing

A noble army, men and boys,
The matron and the maid,
Around the throne of God rejoice,
In robes of light arrayed;
They climbed the steep ascent to heaven
Through peril, toil and pain;
O God, to us may grace be given

Let all the people praise thee.

O let the nations be glad and sing for joy:

For thou shalt judge the people righteously,

Invocation*The Lord's Prayer*Responsive Reading*The CommissionLeader* — For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.School — How then shall they call upon Him in whom they have not believed? How shall they believe in Him of whom they have not heard? And how shall they hear without a preacher? And how shall they preach except they be sent?

Lift up your eyes and look on the fields, for they are ripe already to harvest.

The harvest truly is plenteous, but the laborers are few; Pray ye therefore the Lord of the harvest, that he will send forth laborers unto his harvest.

For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost. And other sheep I have, which are not of this fold: them also I must bring, and they shall hear my voice; and there shall be one fold, and one shepherd.

Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you.

And lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world. Amen.

A Garnered Sheaf

Leader — What has one century wrought?

School — "At the close of the eighteenth century almost the entire world outside of Christendom was closed to missionary effort." — (James S. Dennis.)

At the beginning of the twentieth century there are "nearly 6,000 principal mission stations where missionaries now reside, and over 22,000 out-stations. Maps of all parts of the world are required to represent the location of these stations. At these centers, and from them as bases, over 16,000 missionaries are working and directing a campaign, the influences of which penetrate the heart of the great masses of the non-Christian peoples. About 1,500,000 are now gathered into the Christian churches." — (John R. Mott.)

"The great need of missions in this age is a revival, in the hearts of the Church, of that large and noble passion which may be called the patriotism of Christ's kingdom. This will draw the most generous and heroic minds into an adventure which promises the most splendid success within the range of human expectation." — (Henry van Dyke.)

The Vision

Leader — For as the rain cometh down, and the snow from heaven, and returneth not thither, but watereth the earth, and maketh it bring forth and bud, that it may give seed to the sower, and bread to the eater:

School — So shall my word be that goeth forth out of my mouth: it shall not return unto me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and it shall prosper in the thing whereto I sent it.

All the kings of the earth shall praise thee, O Lord, when they hear the words of thy mouth. Yea, they shall sing in the ways of the Lord: for great is the glory of the Lord.

And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest. For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.

For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of the Lord, as the waters cover the sea.

I saw in the night visions, and, behold, one like the Son of man came with the clouds of heaven, and came to the Ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.

And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all people, nations, and languages, should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.

That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth.

And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne, and the living creatures, and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands; saying with a loud voice,

Worthy is the Lamb that was slain to receive power, and riches, and wisdom, and strength, and honour, and glory, and blessing.

And every creature which is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all that are in them, heard I saying,

Blessing, and honour, and glory, and power, be unto him that sitteth upon the throne, and unto the Lamb for ever and ever.

And his mercy is on them that fear him from generation to generation.

And they, having heard the king, went their way; and lo, the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

And when they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

O little town of Bethlehem,
How still we see thee lie!

Singing

How silently, how silently,
The wondrous gift is given!
So God imparts to human hearts

all believers.

Thou sittest at the right hand of

We therefore pray thee, help thy

The Story

Leader — And when the sabbath was past, Mary Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, had brought sweet spices, that they might come and anoint him.

School — And very early in the morning, the first day of the week, they came unto the sepulchre at the rising of the sun.

And they said among themselves,
Who shall roll us away the stone from the door of the sepulchre?

And when they looked, they saw that the stone was rolled away: for it was very great. And entering into the sepulchre, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, clothed in a long white garment; and they were affrighted.

And he saith unto them, Be not affrighted: ye seek Jesus of Nazareth, which was crucified: he is risen; he is not here: behold the place where they laid him. But go your way, tell his disciples and Peter that he goeth before you into Galilee: there shall ye see him, as he said unto you.

The Hope

Leader — But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the firstfruits of them that slept.

School — For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead. For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.

As is the earthly, such are they also that are earthly: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly. And as we have borne the image of the earthly, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.

Lord: sing unto him, sing praises unto him.School — For the precious fruits brought forth by the sun, and for the precious things put forth by the mountains, and for the precious things of the everlasting hills, and for the

Responsive Reading

Leader—They that sow in tears shall reap in joy. He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him.

School—He that receiveth a prophet in the name of a prophet shall receive a prophet's reward; and he that receiveth a righteous man in the name of a righteous man shall receive a righteous man's reward.

Leader—And whosoever shall give to drink unto one of these little ones a cup of cold water only in the name of a disciple, verily I say unto you, he shall in no wise lose his reward.

SERVICE NO. 12

A National Service*Prelude*Opening Sentences*Invocation*The Lord's Prayer*Responsive Reading*Thanksgiving to the God of our Fathers

Leader — O God, we have heard with our ears; our fathers have told us, what work thou didst in their days, in the days of old.

School — Marvelous things did he in the sight of their fathers, when they were but few in number.

He led forth his own people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.

He increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their adversaries.

O Lord God of our fathers, prepare our hearts unto thee, to keep thy commandments, thy testimonies, and thy statutes, throughout all generations.

Blessed be the Lord, the God of our fathers, from everlasting even to everlasting. And let all the people say, Amen. Praise ye the Lord.

Fathers' Hymn. No. 250. God of our fathers, whose almighty hand (standing)

The Psalmist's Testimony

Leader — If it had not been the Lord who was on our side, when men rose up against us; then they had swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled against us.

Our help is in the name of the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord; and the people whom he hath chosen for his own inheritance.

Righteousness exalteth a nation; but sin is a reproach to any people.

Happy is that people whose God is the Lord.

Hymn No. 252. Battle Hymn of the Republic

Mine eyes have seen the glory of the coming of the Lord:

He is trampling out the vintage where the grapes of wrath are stored; He hath loosed the fateful lightning of his terrible swift sword.

His truth is marching on.

CHORUS — Glory, glory hallelujah.

Words of Benjamin Franklin

The School — I have lived, sir, a long time; and the longer I live, the more convincing proofs I see of this truth, — that God governs in the affairs of men. And if a sparrow cannot fall to the ground without his notice, is it possible that an empire can rise without his aid? We have been assured, sir, in the sacred writings that — “ Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it.” I firmly believe this.

Singing

I have seen him in the watch-fires of a hundred circling camps;
They have builded him an altar in the evening dews and damps;
I can read his righteous sentence by the dim and flaring lamps.
His day is marching on.—CHORUS:

Pledge of Loyalty

Leader—“Our country does not ask us to die for her only, she asks us to live and so to act that her government may be pure, her officers honest, and every corner of her territory a place fit to grow the best men and women who shall rule over her.”

School—“God hath made of one blood all nations of men, and we are his children, brothers and sisters all. We are citizens of these United States and we believe our flag stands for self-sacrifice for the good of the people.”

Singing

In the beauty of the lilies Christ was born across the seas;
With a glory in his bosom that transfigures you and me:
As he died to make men holy, let us die to make men free:
While God is marching on.—CHORUS:

Lincoln's Speech at Gettysburg

Leader—Four score and seven years ago our fathers brought forth upon this continent a new nation, conceived in liberty, and dedicated to the proposition that all men are created equal.

School—Now we are engaged in a great civil war, testing whether that nation, or any nation so conceived and so dedicated, can long endure.

We are met on a great battlefield of that war. We have come to dedicate a portion of that field as a final resting place for those who here gave their lives that that nation might live.

It is altogether fitting and proper that we should do this. But in a larger sense; we cannot dedicate, we cannot consecrate, we cannot hallow this ground.

The brave men, living and dead, who struggled here, have consecrated it far above our poor power to add or detract.

The world will little note nor long remember what we say here, but it can never forget what they did here.

It is for us, the living, rather, to be dedicated here to the unfinished work which they who fought here have thus far so nobly advanced.

It is rather for us to be here dedicated to the great task remaining before us: that from these honored dead we take increased devotion to that cause for which they gave the last full measure of devotion:

All—That we here highly resolve that these dead shall not have died in vain; that this nation, under God, shall have a new birth of freedom; and that government of the people, by the people, for the people, shall not perish from the earth.
